

Non -Application of Multilateral Agreements between Particular Members

Multilateral Trade Agreements in Annexes 1 and 2 shall not bind any other Member if either of the Members, at the time of their accession, did not consent to such application.

Agreements concluded between original Members of the WTO which were in force on 1 January 1995 only where Article XXXV of that Agreement had been invoked between those contracting parties at the time of entry into force between a Member and another Member which has acceded to the Agreement. The recommendations of the Dispute Settlement Body shall not be binding on a Member which has acceded to the Agreement.

