

VI. To provide advice and technical assistance to other Members, upon request, on issues related to the obligatory local technical regulations in accord to their exports to the requirements of the Sultanate , and also to provide the local community (exporters, importers, manufacturers and