

THE CIVIL CODE

Article 11. The Protection of Civil Rights

1. The protection of the violated or disputed civil rights shall be carried out, in accordance with the jurisdiction over cases determined by the procedural legislation, by the court, economic court, or the arbitration court (hereinafter referred to as - the court).
2. The protection of the civil rights in an administrative manner shall be exercised in cases provided by law. Any administrative decision may be appealed to the court.

Article 12. The Methods of Protection of Civil Rights

The protection of civil rights shall be exercised by the following:

-

The protection of the intellectual property rights shall be carried out using the methods provided for in Article 12 of this Code, as well as by means of the following:

- Payment of the compensation determined by the court;
-