

DECREE-LAW No. 26/2010

of 22nd December

REGISTRATION OF INDIVIDUAL
ENTREPRENEURS FROM THE BUILDING AND CONSTRUCTION SECTOR

Upon analysis of the entrepreneurial dimensions in the building and construction sector, it has been ascertained that a great number of entrepreneurs do not have the economic and financial capacity to legally incorporate as companies. Moreover, many of these professional individuals have experience in running small businesses in the building and construction sector and are therefore able to carry out such contracts and other works in a very efficient manner.

Aware of this reality, the Ministry of Infrastructure wishes to give these professionals the possibility of entering in practice and ends in order to carry out contracts and other works of a technical nature, to meet the current needs for the creation of self-employment in the one hand and on the other to stimulate the entrepreneurial growth in the construction sector.

The present legislative diploma shall create specific regulations for the registration and filing of individual entrepreneurs in different professional fields of the building and construction sector. The specific conditions shall be created for those who do not possess professional certification or do not obtain such certification by way of specific professional training courses in the field of the building and construction sector provided by the Ministry of Infrastructure in accordance with the current reality of the construction industry in the country.

The Government hereby decrees within the scope of the provisions set forth in the present law the price and of services provided by the Construction of the Republic the following:

- f. Issued by the competent official of the respective State.
- g. Copy of the respective citizen identification document (passport or other).
- h. Declaration of the entrepreneur that such individual entrepreneur is not a member of the technical staff of another company or construction consultancy company.
- i. Declaration of the entrepreneur that such individual entrepreneur does not work for any party or authority or declaration of a horizon issued by the party or authority should be performed.
