The Law of Ukraine

On Protection of Rights for Industrial Design Resume

The Law of Ukraine "On Protection of Rights for Industrial Design" (hereinafter - "Law") No 3688-XII dated December 15, 1993 and introduced since June 1, 1994 by the Decree of the Verchovna

- conditions of compulsory transfer of rights,
- actions that shall not be recognised as violation of rights,
- obligations in connection with patent.

Part VI "Suspending of the Patent Validity and Recognition of its Invalidity" includes the Articles 24, 25 in which determined the conditions of suspending of the patent on industrial design validity and recognition of the patent on industrial design invalidity.

Part VII "Protection of Rights" includes the Articles 26, 27 in which determined the actions that shall be considered as violation of rights of the patent owner and the list of disputes that shall be settled by court.

Part VIII "Final Provisions" includes the Articles 28 - 30 which determine:

- basic provisions on charges (duties) payment;
- procedure of patenting of the industrial design, created in Ukraine, in foreign countries;
- provisions on state encouragement of creation and utilisation of industrial design in Ukraine.

The above Decree of the Verchovna Rada of Ukraine "On Introduction of the Law of Ukraine "On Protection of Rights for Industrial Design":

- establish the procedure of validity in Ukraine of author_s certificates on industrial design of the USSR and legal relations in this connection;
- establish other transition provisions, connected with introduction of the Law.