Statement by the Honourable Clement James Rohee, MP
Minister of Foreign Trade and International Cooperation

On behalf of the I3On be-4extended to my delegation. I also recognize the enormous efforts and dedication of Director-General Dr Supachai and the staff of the WTO Secretariat in the preparation for this Conference.

It is extremely crucial for Cancún to advance the Development Agenda which we established at Doha nearly two years ago. It will not be sufficient for us to simply reiterate the decisions taken then nor would it be acceptable to revise the leve environment that has been taking place, to prop
