potential outcome. It is regrettable to observe some signs of destructive activities antagonizing the Members and suggesting a two-tier trading system by sharpening North-South division. This can effectively prevent developing countries to fully benefit from the reform of the multilateral trade system.

We highly evaluate conditions of equal competition through market access on non-agricultural products. In our opinion this is achievable through harmonization of tariff levels among all Members and sectors. Ambitions should be realized with a single, simple line-by-line non-linear formula topped with bindings in all lines. Exceptions, if needed, could be applied in a form of longer implementation periods. The negotiations should be continued on non-tariff barriers with a view of elimination of export duties, which prevent trade and hide extra financial backing for local industries.

We agree to the text proposed by the Chairman of the General Council on the need to "reaffirm that the service negotiations shall aim t.1(a)8cTc0.neve1n230c1D6( (ich.1(ic)2(e nM5 le )5.)1(i)-1.
