

DOMESTIC SUPPORT

Domestic support policies and measures applied by Dominica are designed to encourage agricultural and rural development and are an integral part of Dominica's development program. These measures are fully consistent with the criteria set forth in the Draft Agreement and are therefore exempted from the reduction commitments set forth in the text on agriculture. Information relating to domestic support measures will be supplied later.

EXPORT COMPETITION

Dominica does not grant export subsidies as defined in the Draft Agreement on agriculture.