

Domestic Support: The Aggregate Measures of Support (AMS) to agriculture in Nigeria is negative since agriculture sector in ~~general~~ is not being subsidized. Agriculture like all economic government involvement removed.

Export Competition: Nigeria does not grant any export subsidies on agriculture. The Marketing Boards System that used to regulate prices of cash crops have been abolished with the introduction of Structural Adjustment Programme in 1986.