

---

Dear Members of the World Trade Organization,

Nearly a year into the Covid-19 pandemic, intellectual property barriers continue to obstruct research, development, manufacturing, and distribution of Covid-19 health technologies that could end the pandemic and start global economic recovery. India and South Africa's call at the World Trade Organization (WTO) for a "Waiver from certain provisions of the TRIPS Agreement for the prevention,

