Procedural Ruling

1. On 8 August 2014, India filed a Notice of Appeal in the above proceedings. On 11 August 2014, the Appellate Body Division hearing this appeal received a letter from the United States requesting an extension of the deadline for filing its appellee's submission in these appellate proceedings, due to the size and complexity of India's appeal. The United States noted that India's Notice of Appeal appeared to include at least 67 separate claims of error. The United States requested that the deadline for filing its appellee's submission be extended by one week, to 2 September 2014.
