

"Unlocking Trade for Women's Empowerment through Innovation and Sustainability"

Talking Points

As the result of his guidance and vision, we now have an established 'gender focal point' in the WTO; we have an inter-divisional Task Force on gender which coordinates the work on gender issues across the house; and importantly, we have a biennial work plan which both guides the work we do and lays out the benchmark of what we want to achieve.

It is my honour to give the floor to the DG to deliver the keynote address on the occasion of the IWD 2019.
